

Gillentine, Jeremy

Jeremy Gillentine is a second year student at the Southeast Institute of Biblical Studies. He and his wife, Amber have been married since 1999. They have four children Sidney (11), Hutson (9), Raegen (6) and Linden (4). They love to spend time together involved in the work of the Kingdom as a family. Their children are home-schooled and are very involved with the Lads-to-Leaders program. Jeremy and Amber came to school to be better prepared to do the work of the Church.

Gott, Andrew

Andrew Gott, 21, from Bowling Green, Kentucky, is a second year student at SEIBS and is, as he says "growing daily in the Lord." On July 20, 2012 Andrew will be married to the love of his life, Haley Dubree. He intends, Lord willing, to take a position as a youth/family/associate minister and will happily go wherever the Lord needs him the most. He states: "I have a passion for Christ, his church and souls in need. I will strive to serve them soundly throughout my ministry."

Houston, Todd

Todd Houston, 34, originally from Crossville, Tennessee, is a second year student at Southeast Institute of Biblical Studies. He and his wife of two years, Amanda Joy, are expecting their first child next Spring. Todd's singular goal in life: to be the best servant in God's kingdom he can be.

Jarrett, Jason

Jason Jarrett is a first year student at SEIBS from Hamilton, Alabama. In 1997, he earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Freed-Hardeman University in Computer Science. For fifteen years, he worked for various companies and organizations as a software developer. He has been married to his sweet wife, Amber, for twelve years, and they have three children: Maddy, Tyler, and Daniel. Jason is interested in bi-vocational ministry and short-term mission opportunities when completing his work at SEIBS.

Rives, Rodge

Rodge Rives was born in Meridian, Mississippi but grew up in and around Montgomery, Alabama. He came to school because he wanted to increase his overall bible knowledge, not just to be a full-time preacher, but simply to help him be a better servant of God. When he graduates he hopes to start to nursing school so that he can support himself while working with small congregations.

Spivey, Johnny

Johnny Spivey, of Sparta, Tennessee, has been married to his wife, Laura, for twenty five years. They have two children, Justin (24) and Courtney (22). After graduating this December from Southeast Institute of Biblical Studies he and Laura hope to do mission work in Tanzania, East Africa.
